1. Forwarded
2. Having had one enlistment in the Naval Communication Reserve you have unquestionably acquired certain information and contact which will make you valuable to the Navy in time of war or emergency. The advantages of a continuous service are many and these are especially evident should you ever be called to active duty in case of war.
3. It is urged that you consider the matter of reenlistment carefully as it is our desire to retain in the Naval Communication Reserve any man who has any interest in its activities, or in the possibilities of his war time service in the Navy.
4. Please advise this office of your intentions in the matter.
