Dear Rhys,

Thanks for your letter of the 14th. Bruny Island is a poor choice for a one day trip due to its inaccessibility. I suggest we go to site 12 on east side of Derwent River (5220 BP), then to site 11 on south side of Carlton River (8700 BP) and if time permits to site 1 at South Arm (2080 BP). An early start on a good day will allow us to examine all three.

I'll be happy to bring some people to West Point. I hope Murphy's shack will not be over-crowded.

Best regards,

Greta Raber.
