Dear Dr. Reber:

Some time ago at Professor John Kraus's request, we arranged to send you a complimentary copy of his recently published book, RADIO ASTRONOMY. We have discovered, to our dismay, that this book, which we had asked to be sent abroad, had not yet been delivered. Therefore, we have placed another order for the book to be sent airmail from our United States distribution center.

As a result, you should be receiving a copy any day now. If and when the originally ordered book arrives, please feel free to keep it or pass it on to an interested friend or colleague. Should you not receive a copy in the next few weeks, please let us know by returning the enclosed postcard to me and we will reorder.

— none enclosed

Naturally, both Dr. Kraus and I hope you enjoy the book and welcome any comments you may have on it.

Sincerely,

Jack E. Jennings
