Dear Mr. Larsen,

Please extend to the Institution my sincere thanks for the high compliment of making me an Honorary Member. I am indeed gratified by this gesture of good will, and hope that I may fulfill the responsibilities during my stay in Australia.

Also, I wish to express pleasure, as one of the guests, at the Dundas Bay dinner. It was a fine gathering of good company, convivial mood and dignified program. The newspaper account next morning reflected good judgement.

Looking forward to a happy association, I am
