Dear Jesse:

At the conference Tuve informed me that the National Science Foundation had provided a grant to cover the expenses of the delegates. While not imperative, I am sure the Research Corporation would be pleased to be reimbursed for my expenses which amounted to $950. The check may be sent either to me or to Next time one of these gatherings is held I hope that we ex-colonists will make a better showing when compared to the wizards from the mother country.

Best regards,
