

- 3.45 p.m. PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS (Section F): Arts Lecture Theatre.
Chairman — W. Bryden (Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery).
The French Canadians: A Study of a Cultural Minority—
R. O. Piddington (University of Auckland).

WEDNESDAY, 18th AUGUST

- 9.30 a.m. SYMPOSIUM: Urbanisation and the Social Structure of Cities.
Room 103, Geology-Geography Building, floor 1.
Chairman—M. G. Marwick (Monash University).
Industrial development and urbanisation in the Northern Territory with particular reference to movements of the aboriginal people — E. P. Milliken (Northern Territory Administration, Darwin).
- 11.15 a.m. SYMPOSIUM (with Section P): Urbanisation and the Social Structure of Cities (continued).
The Thai urban administrative élite—H. D. Evers (Monash University).
Social area analysis: some notes on Melbourne, 1961—
F. L. Jones (Australian National University).
- 2.00 p.m. SYMPOSIUM (with Section P): Urbanisation and the Social Structure of Cities (continued).
Lecture Theatre, Geology-Geography Building, floor 2.
Chairman—P. Scott (University of Tasmania).
Ethnic and occupational structure of State capitals in Australia, 1961 — J. Zubrzycki (Australian National University).
Social and economic problems of urban residential renewal in New Zealand cities — J. Forrest (University of Otago).
- 3.45 p.m. REVIEW PAPER: Arts Room G12.
The Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies: its Function and Research Programme—
F. D. McCarthy (Principal of the Institute).

THURSDAY, 19th AUGUST

- 9.30 a.m. SYMPOSIUM: The Tasmanian Aborigine.
Arts Lecture Theatre.
Chairman—W. Bryden (Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery).
The post-settlement history of the Tasmanian aborigines — W. F. Ellis (Queen Victoria Museum, Launceston).
French manuscripts referring to the Tasmanian aborigines — N. J. B. Plomley.
The age of the Tasmanian aborigines—
G. Reber (Division of Radiophysics, C.S.I.R.O., Hobart).
- 11.15 a.m. SYMPOSIUM: The Tasmanian Aborigine (continued).
Excavations at the Rocky Cape caves — R. M. Jones (University of Sydney).
A summary of published work on the physical anthropology of the Tasmanian aborigines — N. J. B. Plomley.
- 2.00 p.m. SYMPOSIUM: The Tasmanian Aborigine (continued).
Chairman—G. Lawton (University of Adelaide).
Tasmanian material culture—W. F. Ellis (Queen Victoria Museum, Launceston).

- 3.45 p.m. SYMPOSIUM: The Tasmanian Aborigine (continued).
What do we know of the Tasmanian languages?—
A. Capell (University of Sydney).
Tasmanian music: an impasse? — Alice M. Moyle
(Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies, Canberra).

FRIDAY, 20th AUGUST

- 9.30 a.m. SYMPOSIUM: Physical Techniques in Anthropology.
Arts Room G12.
Chairman — W. F. Ellis (Queen Victoria Museum, Launceston).
Recording of faded paintings and drawings under ultra-violet light — W. J. Webster (University of New England).
Night recording technique for rock carvings—
J. C. Lough (Sydney).
- 11.15 a.m. Concurrent Sessions:
- 1. SYMPOSIUM: Physical Techniques in Anthropology (continued).
Radiocarbon dating as a tool in archaeology—
H. Polach (Australian National University).
Analytical and geomorphic techniques in the excavation of non-limestone caves — E. B. Joyce (University of Melbourne).
- 2. PAPERS: Linguistics. Arts Room G1.
Chairman — W. E. H. Stanner (Australian National University).
A phonological-formal account of the word in Mentu Land Dayak — C. A. F. Court (University of Sydney).
Contribution also by A. Capell (University of Sydney).
- 2.00 p.m. PAPERS: Sociology. Arts Room G12.
Chairman — M. G. Marwick (Monash University).
Language change and identity change — Mrs. J. Hammet (Mental Hygiene Authority, Melbourne).
Some educational and occupational aspirations in New Guinea — Karol van der Veur and Penelope Richardson (Australian National University).
- 3.45 p.m. PAPERS: Social Anthropology. Arts Room G12.
Chairman — Marie Reay (Australian National University).
The dynamics of culture change in New Zealand pre-history — L. M. Groube (University of Otago).
Back and fill: a cross-linguistic look at ludlings—
D. C. Laycock (Australian National University).